What a year 2019 promises to be! The Allen County GOP has one of the strongest slates of candidates ever for municipal elections throughout our county. Mayoral candidates Tim Smith in Fort Wayne, Steve McMichael in New Haven, and Joe Kelsey in Woodburn, will lead these cities into an era of prosperity and strength during the upcoming new decade. Lana Keesling, Fort Wayne City Clerk, is seeking re-election so that she can continue the modernization and efficiency which has changed the culture in the City Clerk's Office for the better.

We have an outstanding slate of candidates for City Council At Large, City Council Districts, Town Councils, and Clerk-Treasurers who, when elected, will serve their communities with distinction and will govern with the Republican prudence and oversight that has served Allen County so well for so many years.

As we prepare for Election Day on November 5, 2019, the Allen County GOP is working hard to ensure a Republican sweep of all municipal elections throughout the county. The assistance we receive from supporters like you allow us to continue our dominance of Allen County government, and to keep strong, conservative leadership as our hallmark.

Please join us for golf, food, beverages and friendship at the Allen County GOP 2019 Golf Outing & 19th Hole on July 25th. Let's "color" the Fort Wayne Mayor's Office red this year and keep our Republican dominance throughout the municipalities of Allen County!

Steven R. Shine, Chairman
Allen County Republican Party
